ANNMARIE KELLY

Annamarie Kelly is an award-winning, bestselling author and speaker, and the architect of The Five-Year Marriage. For over twenty-five years, Annmarie Kelly has had the pleasure of working with hundreds of women, helping them get unstuck, reconnect to their life's goals, and get empowered to shape their challenges into new beginnings with fabulous futures. Her books include The Five-Year Marriage: Secrets, Tools, and Strategies for Reimagining Marriage So It Works for You, Victorious Woman: Shaping Life's Challenges into Personal Victories, Victory by Design, and It's All About Showing Up Vol.2 (contributing author).

Annamarie has been married EIGHT times...to the same man...for just five years each time – and each marriage has been different. In The Five-Year Marriage: Secrets, Tools, and Strategies for Reimagining Marriage So It Works for You, Annmarie shows single professional women – and their partners - how to keep their personal power in their relationship and create equal partnership marriages they love living.

Prior to her current role, Annmarie was a corporate training specialist, specializing in communication skill building and management development. She also hosted the digital TV show Not Your Mother's Marriage on the This Is It network and the Friday Happy Hour radio show on WCHE in West Chester, PA. She pioneered May's International Victorious Woman Month and the annual Victorious Woman Celebration and fundraiser, the Girlfriend Gala. She has been honored as a 100 Women Global Change-Maker, awarded the ATDPHL Leadership Award (twice), the International Women's Day Outstanding Service Award, the President's Call to Service, awarded by President Barack Obama, Neumann University's Distinguished Alumni Award, and is a Distinguished Toastmaster (DTM) and a Literacy Hero nominee.
